Introduction

Encounter (Sunbury) Inc. is committed to promoting and protecting the interests and safety of children. We have zero tolerance for child abuse.

Everyone involved at Encounter is responsible for the care and protection of children and the reporting of information about child abuse.

This policy document should be read in conjunction with “A guide for Faith Communities on the Reportable Conduct Scheme”, provided by the Commission for Children and Young People.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is:

1. To minimize the risk of child abuse occurring within Encounter.
2. To work towards an organisational culture of child safety.
3. To ensure that all parties are aware of their responsibilities for, identifying possible risk for child abuse, establishing controls and procedures for preventing abuse and/or detecting any abuse when it occurs
4. To provide guidance to staff/ volunteers as to action that should be taken where they suspect any abuse within or outside of the organisation.
5. To provide a clear statement for staff/volunteers forbidding any abuse.
6. To provide assurance that any and all suspected abuse will be reported and fully investigated.
7. To increase awareness and vigilance throughout the church congregation so members become more discerning.

Policy

Encounter (Sunbury) Inc. is committed to promoting and protecting children at all times. Children usually attend Encounter in the care of an adult.

Encounter runs various programs for children. These programs are considered to be in the best interests of participants. All children, regardless of their gender, religious beliefs, age, disability, sexual orientation, family or social background, have equal rights for protection against abuse.

During programs children will be listened to, their opinions valued and used to further develop child protection policies. Through training those working with children will become more aware of what children are saying.

All children will be treated with respect. Encounter is committed to the cultural safety of Aboriginal children and those from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. Children with a disability will be provided with a safe environment.

Encounter has zero tolerance for child abuse. Everyone involved at Encounter is responsible for the care and protection of all children, especially those attending the church. Any suspected child abuse needs to be reported immediately to the Senior Pastor and Safety Officer. Child protection is a shared responsibility to be undertaken by all people that attend Encounter.

If any person believes a child is in immediate danger of abuse they should contact the authorities – the police on 000.

Investigating

Should there be a situation which is deemed to be reportable then the appropriate authorities assume responsibility for investigation. It is possible Encounter (Sunbury) will not hear of the outcome.

If there is an allegation of a criminal offence (such as a sexual offence), this must be reported to Victoria Police. It is not the role of volunteers or staff at Encounter. to conduct an investigation into a criminal offence. If the police decide to investigate the allegation, Encounter must wait for police clearance before conducting its own investigation.

If there is an allegation of Reportable Conduct (see Reportable Conduct Scheme), this must be reported to CCYP and Encounter will undertake an investigation. The Head of Organisation needs to appoint and supervise an investigation to establish the facts and make findings about the allegation (the reportable conduct).

All investigations are confidential. It is the duty of each person to cooperate fully with an investigation but also to ensure the rights of the child are upheld and all information kept confidential only to be shared with a person in authority or an investigating body.

Process of an investigation

1. Report the allegation to the police (if criminal)
2. Assess whether the allegation is reportable
3. Report the allegation to the Commission (3 business days)
4. Plan and establish an investigation
5. Conduct a thorough and fair investigation
6. Complete an investigation report
7. Make or recommend findings
8. Report findings to the Commission

Victorian Reportable Conduct Scheme

As a religious organisation, Encounter is required to report to CCYP any allegation of reportable conduct. The five types of reportable conduct are:

- Sexual offences against, with, or in the presence of, a child
- Sexual misconduct against, with, or in the presence of, a child
- Physical violence against, with, or in the presence of, a child
- Behaviour which causes significant emotional or psychological harm to a child
- Significant neglect of a child.

Allegations can be made against anyone who works at or is involved in the church, including employees, volunteers, officers, religious leaders, carers or contractors.

If anyone has a reasonable belief that reportable conduct or misconduct that may involve reportable conduct has occurred, then the head of the organisation must report this to CCYP.

The most recent version of the CCYP resource "A guide for Faith Communities on the Reportable Conduct Scheme" should be consulted when deciding whether an allegation is reportable and when undertaking an investigation.

If there is uncertainty whether someone is covered by the Scheme, CCYP should be contacted directly.

Screening Requirements for staff and volunteers

Encounter (Sunbury) Inc. undertakes a comprehensive and thorough screening process for all personnel who come into contact with children.

The recruitment of staff and volunteers will include appropriate checks to ensure the person is suitable to work with children. These may include one or more of the following:

- Working with Children Check, which is current and kept up to date for all staff and volunteers working with children. Until the WWC check, or proof of application for a WWC check, has been sighted they must not begin their engagement with children. If a staff member or volunteer is issued with an interim exclusion notice they will be asked to step down from any ministry where children are present until the matter is resolved. Where an exclusion is issued the person will be removed from any ministry where children are present and may be removed from all ministry involvement. If the board deems it appropriate further action may be taken, potentially including removal from Encounter.
- If a resume is requested, qualifications will be checked and referees contacted.
- CCVT Safe Church Awareness Training.
- Police Check.
- First Aid Certificate.

Staff and Volunteers must sign the Encounter Code of Conduct (Appendix I) showing they have been advised of their responsibilities, including towards children and young people.

If it is alleged a member of staff or volunteer may have committed an offence or have breached the Code of Conduct the person will be stood down while an investigation takes place.

If the investigation decides that the Code of Conduct has been breached and an offence committed disciplinary action will occur. This may include being asked to leave Encounter. The findings will also be reported to external bodies if required.

All personnel will be informed of the need to promote and protect the safety of all children under the care of Encounter.

The Senior Pastor and/or Encounter Board must appoint staff and volunteers who share Encounter's values and commitment to the protection of children, and they MUST prevent a person from volunteering at Encounter if they pose a risk to children.

Privacy

All personal information will be kept with respect to privacy of the individual involved unless there is a risk to someone's safety.

Evaluation

Every two years or following an incident a review shall be conducted to assess whether the policies and procedures of Encounter require modification to protect children under their care.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. Against such things there is no law. Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. Since we live by the Spirit, let us keep in step with the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other.
